P.C. :-

1. It is clear from the affidavit filed by the Corporation as also the affidavit filed by the petitioner that the order passed in the writ petition by the Division Bench has in any event been substantially complied with by the Corporation. It appears that there is a difference of opinion in the matter of calculation of the exact amount to which the petitioner is entitled. This cannot be said to be wilful disobedience of the order passed by the Court. Contempt petition cannot be entertained, it is disposed off. It is needless to say that the petitioner would be entitled to adopt any remedy that may be available to the petitioner, either for executing the order or for recovery of the amount.
